

REACH FOR THE GOOD THINGS

There's more than "your home" — at home in beautiful Mission Viejo, Aurora. We've wrapped up your family in the most extensive planned community Colorado has ever seen.

It's all here in our superb square mile — a $750,000 Private Recreation Center will be finished soon. Landscaped green belts wind their way through the community. The new Cherry Creek elementary school is under construction. A library site has been dedicated. The fire station is scheduled for completion May 1st. Even the long pools and curved brick walkways are special to the Mission Viejo life style. It all adds up to an investment in everyday elegance — and investment protection second to none. It's all happening in beautiful Mission Viejo now. Welcome home!
