new
e to old
uses

NIEL Q. HANEY
ated Press Writer
R TSMOUTH,
Thirteen old
that have de-
to ramshackle
are being re-
to the way they 200 years ago.
nstead of housing
and colonial mer-
they'll hold mod-
s and offices.
all - but - forgotten
now standing in st of a flattened
enewal area, are
a new federal pro-
to save historic
by turning them
mmercial property.
the project is fin-
hext year, the exteriors will look
h as possible like
re during the cen-
mming the Revolu-
War, when Ports-
reached the peak
sport prominence.
AD OF being fill-antiques and open
visitors by admis-
as are many res-
the houses will
vable business
in a city that's
to make an eco-
ed bus-
ses are often
nto museums,
officials say some
so are converting commerical real
Those cities in-
Alexandria, Va.;
ento, Calif.; At-
a.; New Orleans,
Charleston, S.C.;
ancisco; Savan-
, and San Anto-

developer of the
outh project says
l be a prestige
ment, charging
rents."
ouses, 12 wooden
brick, were built 1715 and 1826 by merchants and
en.
FEELING is that
re certain cities—
outh is one—that
ep heritage," said
Murphy, director
Portsmouth Hous-
hority, the agency
ing federal spend-
e project.
often we see
dating from the
the Civil War
recklessly torn
We think these
hould be saved.
idea," Murphy
is to use these
for living history
than as mu-
HOUSES were
d across a 30-acre
rege area that
l colonial
ffs.
declined to tene-
rows, the houses
plit into apart-
Some were enlarg-
ells that obliterat-
ir Georgian and
l design, while
were altered with odernizations as k siding.

IT MAKES SENSE

MISSION VIEJO

Little heads get together and share a penny for their thoughts . . . happy, fun-filled dreams in the exciting "better life" community, beautiful Mission Viejo.

For the sheer joy of good living, invest in the joy of tomorrow, today . . . with an irresistible, new La Paz or Granada Home . . . or a fabulous new Seville Townhome. Then watch your future grow and prosper in the most vibrant, new planned community in the Denver area.

Here are decorator innovations in One and Two-Story, Tri-Level, and Ranch-Style homes, with up to five bedrooms and three baths. Brand new townhomes, with up to four bedrooms, and exterior maintenance and landscaping chores managed for you.

The private, $750,000 Recreation Center, now under construction, will offer to its members a year 'round, indoor swimming pool, exercise rooms, Jacuzzi, sauna and a full slate of exciting, planned activities.

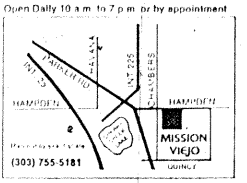
Discover all the "good life" features of the most imaginative, and uniquely innovative family residential development in Colorado.

Granada Homes
FROM $33,995 TO $38,995

La Paz Homes
FROM $41,995 TO $51,495

Seville Townhomes
FROM $24,400 TO $29,900

Open Daily 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. or by appointment



"EQUAL HOUSING OPPORTUNITIES"

BY THE MISSION VIEJO COMPANY AURORA, COLORADO
"BUILDERS OF AMERICA'S MOST SUCCESSFUL NEW COMMUNITIES"