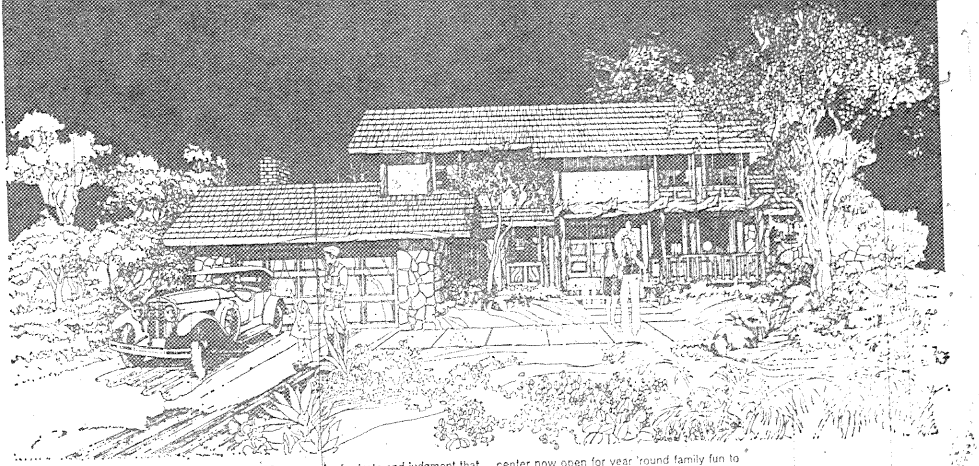
WHEN YOUR LIFESTYLE DEMANDS THE $60,000 LOOK



You have acquired a taste and judgment that demands quality. You will find them both in your irresistible new Granada or La Paz home in exciting Mission Viejo! Spacious, designed for family living in one and two story designs, with basements, and up to five bedrooms and three baths. Surprisingly affordable and filled with innovative ideas – vaulted ceilings, sunken conversation pits, open balconies overlooking dining areas, masonry fireplaces, all-electric kitchens and much more!

You'll come home to a wonderful world of relaxation in clean, fresh air and country surroundings – and the fabulous, new $750,000 private recreation center now open for year 'round family fun to members! You'll enjoy tennis, volleyball or basketball, and swimming in the large indoor pool. There's a beautiful clubhouse, too, with an exercise room, jacuzzi, saunas and a lounge for social activities. There are playgrounds and wading pool for children, and family picnic areas!

You'll come home to the Denver area's most unique family residential community, master planned to include its own library, fire station, parks and neighborhood shopping, with the Cherry Creek Elementary School soon to open at Mission Viejo. Come live the good life – come live at Mission Viejo!
