There are those who question the advisability of spending the money for developing a second floor at all and of who will feel that all the money was going to be used to put in a restaurant in the room that a built should have been included in the plan. However, the house has been planned and furnished to provide sleeping space for 12 people without invading bedrooms. It is a party house also capable of handling over a hundred with ease.

The idea house is located at 4423 S. Zenobia St., just south of W. Quincy Avenue and just East of S.
Sheridan Boulevard.

Mission Viejo sets fireworks

Day long festivities will mark this year's Fourth of July celebration at Mission Viejo.

The event is part of a larger program offered every year known as Colorado Days.

The July 4 fun will begin at 11 a.m. with horseback, tricycle races for adults — even a judging of the current beard growing contest.

A traditional family picnic will begin at 4 p.m. and the public is invited to bring their picnic baskets and join in the fun. Highlight of the day will be a huge and colorful Fourth of July fireworks display followed by a dance.

The fireworks extravaganza will begin at 9 p.m. and will be offered without charge. The half hour display will be conducted by Stonebraker Rocky Mountain Fireworks Company of Denver and will be one of the largest being shown in the Denver area. It will be presented at the Mission Viejo athletic field located at the corner of Mission Parkway and Albia Parkway across from the new Mission Viejo Elementary School. There will be plenty of free parking.
