

WHO IS MISSION VIEW?

Mission View is a company committed to developing better places to live.

Mission View is a company, nationwide, recognized as one of the most imaginative, creative and successful in the field of land, home and community development. Mission View is a company which has developed and is still building communities where there are people who want a better place to live and grow.

Mission View is a company which has proved that it is dedicated to social development, by seeking to guide the legislation for development that has made people want to live in the suburbs of their community and their villages.

Mission View is a company that has the Long-Term to build planned communities that are very beyond those you've come to know ... that are Balanced Communities.

Come to Highlands and Chambers Knolls in Aurora and you'll see Mission View, Colorado. More great economic partners and security ... Great Beds, care-free events and fun-days ... A beautiful Clear which will be ready for the top hand who will be able to move in early this fall. These handouts will have shown that houses from other models with the foot plans. There will be Ranch, 1 1/2-level and Two-story houses. (with and without barns). They will range from 2 to 3 bedrooms with 2 or 3 baths. All will have two-car garages. From $27,900. Callabout. PMA and VA financing will be available.

MISSION VIEW - AURORA, COLORADO

HOUSING OFFICER